The Meadowdale High School

"LIONS' PRIDE"

Meadowdale High School
Dayton, Ohio
1965

It is probable that we, the Seniors of 1965, have no one in our class who will ever forget Meadowdale High School. We have aided the growth and maturity of our still-young Alma Mater, while it is quite certain that the school greatly aided each of us in our own, personal growth and maturity in return. We have each learned to know Meadowdale well, and we have also learned to know ourselves. Actually, through our four short years of toil and fun, we have become a part of the school, just as secure as the firmest of bricks in its foundation.

Even though it will never again be possible for us to relive the experiences we encountered in these hallowed halls, the memories we have retained will always live for us, and will perhaps inspire us to bigger and better things.

It is hoped that the name of this year's annual book be retained each year hereafter and that it will eventually become a lasting part of Lion tradition. Yet the title applies least of all to the contents of this book, or any book to come. For we must always remember that we, and the classes before and after our class, will always be the real "LIONS' PRIDE"

Administration

MR. MAXWELL

Through Mr. John B. Maxwell's never ending dedication to Meadowdale High School, his expert guidance, and his uncomparable ability to create a close bond between teachers and students, Meadowdale has grown to be one of the most admired schools in the area. It is Meadowdale's privilege to have such a great man at its head as principal.

Ron - Best of good wishes! Let's really "crack" the books next year and completely reach the potential we know can be yours!
Sincerely,
Paul V. Ressler

MR. RESSLER

Through our assistant principal, Mr. Paul V. Ressler, many of our students have been guided to higher aspirations and a greater fulfillment in life. His never ending dedication is continuously felt at Meadowdale, and his support in our studies and activities shall never be forgotten.

CLASS HISTORY

For the class of nineteen sixty-five, Meadowdale will always hold cherished memories. We cannot possibly measure the important part this school has meant in each of our hearts. Through these four years our class has become a close unit of friends, working together toward making Meadowdale great. But we will always remember how Meadowdale helped to make us better individuals.

In the Fall of 1961, Meadowdale opened its doors to us, its new Freshman class. Our year began with the election of officers. These were: President, Jim McCann; Vice President, Steve Cooper; Secretary, Phyllis Smith; Treasurer, Pat Cerney; Historian, Rena Bisping; Sergeant-at-Arms, Pete Dallow. These capable officers united our class with an undying school spirit. But all too soon the year was over and we could only wait to see what our next three years would unload for us.

When we entered our Sophomore year, it was with a new feeling of security. We were no longer classified as "Those little freshmen"! Out freshman officers maintained their jobs and saw us successfully through another year. And at the close of this year we were looking eagerly forward to the opportunities of our Junior year.

Our Junior year proved to be one of the happiest and hardest years of our high school days. Our Junior Class officers were: President, Steve Cooper; Vice President, Mike Gribler; Secretary, Judi Wolfe; Treasurer, Pam Brockman; Historian, Sue Rahn; Sergeant-at-arms, Richard Lucas.

We will never forget the thrill and excitement when we received our class rings. This was proof of our being "Upperclassmen". Spring brought the Junior-Senior Prom. Everyone worked very hard and made "Carousel" one of the loveliest dances Meadowdale has ever had. With the close of this eventful year, everyone was looking forward to the final step, our Senior year.

We had finally reached our most important year, and our Senior Class officers were: President, Danny Graves; Vice President, Tony Black; Secretary, Sue Rahn; Treasurer, Mike Epperley; Historian, Renda Dorton; Sergeant-at-arms, Walker Moore.

At Homecoming our King and Queen were Jack Hatfield and Judi Wolfe. Senior attendants were Donna Bedwell and Dan Graves. Sonie Shaftner and Tony Black played the leading roles in Rebel Without a Cause, Meadowdale's first dramatic play. Sue Rahn and Ken Myers reigned over the annual Snoball, "Enchanted Evening". Pam Brockman and Dan Flory were senior attendants.

Renda Dorton was crowned Queen and Diane Dahm, senior attendant at "Del Amora", our annual Valentine dance.

We can never forget the great effort our faculty put forth to make our final events the happiest days of our lives. After Commencement, we left Meadowdale as a class but its memories will always remain in our hearts.

THE LAST WORD

Editing a yearbook such as this one has taught me many things and brought me through many experiences. I can only say that it has been a profitable venture for me, and that this book brings as much pleasure to look through as it did to prepare.

I, as editor, would like to extend my deepest gratitude to the following people, without whom this book would never have been possible;

My staff, Brenda Eldridge, Sandi Smith, Judi Wolfe, Nancy Ander, Debbi Handler, for their invaluable advice and assistance;

Mr. Robert Weidner, our advisor, for his advice and guidance; Mr. Joe Friedman, Mrs. Pat Easterling, and the entire staff of Friedman-Easterling Studios for their fine photography;

Mr. Terry Hertzinger and the Taylor Publishing Company for their technical assistance;

Mr. Medlar, Carl Nesbitt, and Dave Feinstein for their fine photography;

Pam Brockman, Leslie Ewing, and Terry Baker for their fine art work;

Mr. Maxwell, Mr. Ressler, and Mrs. Rix for their aid and assistance.
